

GRANT ANNOUNCEMENT:

The Marcus Garvey Foundation's The Jean Harvey Slappy Research Grant

This grant—named in honor of Jean Harvey Slappy, a long-time board member of the Marcus Garvey Foundation—looks to support doctoral candidates working on aspects of the history of the Universal Negro Improvement Association (UNIA), the African Communities League (ACL), and/or Marcus Garvey's organizational activities, and who wish to use the Thomas W. Harvey/U.N.I.A. collection (Finding Aid: <http://bit.ly/2zh0dYr>) located at Emory University's Manuscript, Archives, and Rare Book Library (MARBL). Research fellows receive grants of $500 to help defray expenses associated with travel to—and use of—the archival collection.

“The U.N.I.A./Thomas W. Harvey Collection contains groundbreaking material that broadens our understanding of the Black freedom struggle in America and beyond.”

--Dr. Tshepo Masango Chery, 2010 Jean Harvey Slappy Fellow

(DEADLINE: MARCH 23, 2018)

APPLYING FOR THE GRANT

All applications & attachments must be received before midnight on March 23, 2018
Decisions will be announced by May 15, 2018

While proposals are welcome on a wide variety of research topics (and in a wide variety of disciplines), proposals will be evaluated based on their relevance to key questions in the field of African and African Diaspora Studies and on the basis of their unique contribution to scholarship.

Required application materials:

- * 2-page summary of the larger research project (single- or double-spaced)
- * 1-page description of the specific research to be carried out with the grant (single- or double-spaced), along with a line-item budget (for up to $500.00) and research timeline
- * Curriculum Vitae (no page limit)
- * One recommendation from an advising professor (either directly from the professor or through a dossier service like Interfolio)

All application materials (including recommendations sent directly from advising professor or from a dossier service) must be sent as Microsoft Word or PDF attachments by the deadline of March 23, 2018 to: GarveyFoundation@gmail.com
